

People ask me to say,
Who am I? and for what? and why?
Just now, just today, in any way?
Of which nation am I a member?
Darling, please remember
My language is my nation
Because there is no state
For which I am a candidate.
People ask me to say,
who am I? and for what? and why?
Graduated in Italian.
My home is Esperanto,
And on the other hand
My house is in Switzerland.
People ask me to say,
Who am I? and for what? and why?
And look, I could be able
To help our association,
Coming here from the base,
Not coming from the table.
People ask me to say,
Who am I? and for what? and why?
Whose candidate am I?
A voice of minority,
A voice of the small Centres,
A voice of diversity,
A voice of a new generation.
People ask me to say,
Who am I? and for what? and why?
Let us just have a dream,
To build our future together.
Not only coming from the past,
But going on from it, however.
